Mac -

Walt Rostow asked me to send these ^{four} ~~three~~ papers to you, and then to come over to talk with you about Turkish IRBM's. I await your pleasure.

2. The three papers are:

(a) A self-explanatory memo from Tyler, Rostow and Talbot to the Secretary about Turkish IRBM's.

(b) A Scenario of specific step-by-step ways of dealing with the problem which we prepared for Mr. Ball.

(c) A memo of negotiations that we sprayed around Saturday which doesn't refer to the Turkish IRBM's but lays out a track into which action concerning their removal could be neatly fitted.

(d) The memo on Summitry which also deals with the Turkish IRBM business.

3. Our disposition at the moment is to push hard on the Pilot Southern Command Multilateral Force (Italians, Greeks, Turkish, US and perhaps Canadians) suggested in paras 8 and 9 of POLTO 506. Once we can get agreement in principle between the countries concerned to proceed with this force I think the Turkish IRBM question will take care of itself with only a minor push by us. But if we make the Southern Force look from the start like a scalpel to take out the Turkish IRBM's, we will get neither the force nor the IRBM's removed.
